

Note: there's an error in the answer to question 1d of the 2014 exam: the cost that A knows for destination D should still be 6, rather than 17, since it is stated that B and C have not yet told their neighbours anything since the link between them failed.